"Gantiamen—Immediately after it was received, I called the attentian of the President of the Sepublic to the spleadid volume in which you have done him se much honer. He has charged me to present to you his thanks. The book (the Napo son Dynasty) is not simply a collection of hie-gaphical documents—it is the history of a great family, and a great name—written with as much imperitality as no-blones. The Frince, whose life and ideas you have so seali unfolded, could not expect to be judged everywhere with the same justice; and its grateful for him to think that this justice has come from a people who know, better thus all others, the obligations imposed by love of country and respect for life ature. I am happy to offer you those centiments, which are an appression of his gratifues and eympathy Please accept the assertance of my destingtained consideration.
